Did you know?

Profile: Nothing captures the essence of Spain, both in cuisine and culture, more than paella. Its preparation is an occasion, a social process that involves culinary creativity and style. Every chef has his or her own particular method, each with subtle variations in ingredients, timing, even the kind of water to use. With this pan you can bring a slice of Valencia, the birthplace of paella, to your table.

Uses: The perfect pan for making an authentic Paella. Also perfect for Fideuá, a noodle-based dish traditional to Catalonia.
